

The Life of our Church

Others on the ALPC human resources committee, multiple interview team members, and I continue to appreciate the trust and patience given to us by the congregation and staff of our church as we work to fill all of our open staff positions. We are excited to share significant progress in hiring new staff!

Office Administrator- Please join all of Avon Lake Presbyterian Church in welcoming Kenzi Roberts as our new Office Administrator. Kenzi will start on May 2, and will overlap with Cindi for all of May for cross-training.

Kenzi is the former receptionist at Avon Lake City Hall and Avon Lake Parks & Recreation. In those roles, Kenzi not only performed reception and administrative tasks, but she also provided leadership, planning, and program management to several programs, including the summer Greenbox program, Haunted Trails, childcare during fitness classes at Anchor Recreation Facility, and multiple holiday and special events.

Cindi is irreplaceable, and will be missed after she retires on May 31. Watch for news about a celebration for Cindi, which is being planned.

Janitor— We have rehired Jessica Hughett as janitor, who started on April 12. Jessica was our janitor several years ago and is returning to us on good terms. She will clean the church and preschool daily, Monday through Friday, from 2:30pm to 5:30pm.

Interim Pastor— The interview team that was assembled last month to evaluate candidates for Interim Pastor includes Bob Ralston, Lee Lohr, Cheryl Dean, Margre Lind Mills, Marcy Uhl, Elizabeth Shoemaker, and Matt Wendling. This team has interviewed several candidates and plans to make a recommendation to Session in early or mid-May. This team will recommend a candidate, and Session will be asked to finalize a hiring decision. We are handling our list of candidates confidentially.

Maintenance Worker— The HR and Property committees have agreed and recommended to Session that maintenance work be hired-out on a project-by-project basis for the time-being, rather than hiring a part-time, permanent staff member for maintenance.

Director of Christian Education— Effort to hire this position will be renewed after the Interim Minister has been finalized.

Media Specialist— The HR committee has begun drafting a job description for a Media Specialist. Possible job duties include coordinating our social media presence, supporting technical aspects of our worship services, and other technical and digital tasks.

Thank you again for your trust and patience. Please continue to pray for the Holy Spirit to guide our discussions, interviews and decisions.

Please also join me in thanking God for Cindi, Kenzi, Jessica, the rest of our staff, and all the candidates that have offered their service to our church. God, please bless all of them, and continue to bless our hiring efforts!

Matt Wendling, ALPC Ruling Elder,
Chair of Human Resources

Pastor Rick

Who are you? Who are we?

Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance.

James 1:2-3 (NIV)

First of all, I would like to give a BIG shout out to all who worked very hard to make Holy Week so meaningful and joyous! It was a glorious week to say the least. The music (thank you Rick, the Chancel Choir and Handbell Choir), the decorations (thank you Margre and the Worship and Spiritual Life Committee), the scripture readings (thank you worship leaders), the Audio Visual Team for their dedication and expertise, the carpenters for helping to re-imagine the chancel area. Everything contributed to a deepening, soulful, and holy experience.

The pews were filled for Palm Sunday worship. Our Maundy Thursday Taize worship service was a powerful and deeply holy experience, as the congregation sang, prayed, shared Holy Communion, and felt the Holy Spirit connect to our inner spirit. The Candles of Grace: Tenebrae worship service on Good Friday evening: powerful. We welcomed many visitors that evening and the comments from them were meaningful and touching. We were gracious hosts and it showed.

Easter was very, very special. For those who braved the weather to gather at North Point, it was worth it. Thank you John and Kristen and their neighbors for hosting us. The winds died down (a little) when worship began and I felt a warmth amid the cold during the service. Thank you Holy Spirit! And the sun finally broke through the low lying cloud bank to make it a perfect early morning. A special thank you to Marcy and Gary for hosting Mary and me between our services. They served us with gracious hospitality and a very delicious breakfast.

Easter worship was another powerful experience as we celebrated the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The flowers, the flowered cross (what an imaginative idea), the music; everything was perfect. For those of you who thought the service went a bit long, I take full responsibility. It was three years since you last gathered as a congregation for Easter and being in charge of how worship is put together, I went a little bit overboard on everything. Everything was done to glorify God.

For those who attended any of our Lenten Services (don't forget Ash Wednesday), I pray that you were able to deepen your relationship with God. Thank you for participating in our Lenten journey.

So, what does the above quote from the Book of James have to do with what I have just said? Even though Lent and Holy Week is over, our journey is not. James reminds us that no matter what happens on the upcoming journey to find an interim and full-time pastor, the congregation is not alone. There will be some trials that you will face. Transition can cause some stress. Just remember that God is not testing your faith. God will give you the strength to persevere.

I've been asked what is the job of the interim pastor. Rest easy; the interim is not here to tell you what to do or force change you might not want. Don't expect the interim to fix all your issues. The interim will be a listener, a guide, a counselor, a confidant. It will be up to you to do the work. The interim will shepherd you along the way.

I suggest you start by looking deep inside and ask yourself, "Who am I?" "What brought you to Avon Lake Presbyterian Church" in the first place, no matter how long ago that might have been. Then reflect on, "What is it about this church that keeps you attending?" "What makes ALPC special?" I encourage each of you to write down some thoughts. I also encourage you to not be afraid to share your thoughts with each other; over coffee after worship, at committee meetings, whenever you socialize with each other. Maybe even be bold enough to share your thoughts via our newsletter. Contact Deacon Nancy Baldwin and she can assist you.

When each of us does this, it will help to better define the heritage of ALPC. Your heritage is a dynamic and creative process, and the development of a vital sense of meaning and self-awareness is the result of an ongoing process of telling and retelling the congregation's defining stories.

This will be an important step in moving forward as you begin to think about what the church will look like in the future. The next step will be an exciting adventure. Transition is never easy but it will enable you to look deep within yourselves. This journey will allow you to continue to move forward and continue to serve the world you encounter. You will persevere.

Blessings, Rick

Deacon News

It's looking a lot like spring around here! Many thanks to all of our congregation members who have supported the recent Deacon activities. We hope that everyone has enjoyed the hikes and movie nights!

HELPING HANDS

Sunday Ride Service

If you ever need a ride to church, please call the church office at 933-6240 to schedule. Many of us Deacons are missing our carpool days and would love some company on the ride to church!

Meal & Grocery Services

Many groups within our church coordinate food collection and make bag lunches as well as hot meals for local shelters. The Deacons are working with these other ALPC groups to be able to deliver an occasional hot meal to members of our own congregation. Deacons are currently calling members to see who may be interested in receiving a meal. Feel free to contact any Deacon or Sybil Wendling to get on the list if you do not receive a call.

Deacons are also available to pick up groceries for anyone who needs an extra set of hands. Call the church office to schedule.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Second Harvest Food Packing Opportunity

Friday, May 13, 930am-12pm

Register at: <https://cerv.is/0293rALPRESBYTERIAN2022>

If you need help registering or want to carpool, contact Sybil at sybilwendling@gmail.com or 440-453-1265

Spring Work Day Lunch

Tentatively June 5 after worship

Our Property Committee will direct volunteers in sprucing up the outside of our church. Deacons will provide a picnic lunch outside.

Bathroom Renovations finished! Please remember to come to the church office and check in with Cindi before going down the hall to other rooms—for safety's sake.

Our Mission Statement

Avon Lake Presbyterian Church Mission Statement

In awe, we Receive God's Grace and Gospel.
In gratitude, we Respond with Worship and Servanthood.
In love, we Represent Jesus Christ as we minister to transform lives in family, community, and the world.

Evangelism Committee

Beth Shoemaker created a beautiful ad for the Westlife newspaper to feature Holy Week services and the Easter Cantata at ALPC. It's been so nice to see our in-person worship attendance swelling this month with both familiar faces and new ones. As we welcome visitors and extended family members from out of town, please introduce yourself and make them feel welcome. Remember to wear your name badges! Pastor Rick will be offering a new member class after Easter.

The Avon Lake Memorial Day Parade will be on Monday, May 30th at 10:00 AM, followed by the Memorial Day ceremony at 10:45 AM at Veterans Park. Please join us aboard John Weeden's bus as we represent ALPC in our community. Sign-up sheets for walkers and riders will be posted in early May. We will pass out candy and flyers with church information. No pets are allowed to be in the parade.

We will be updating our church brochures in the pew racks and continue to post new photos and events on our website. Videos of the "Good Night, God" bedtime stories created by our Christian Education Committee will soon be added too. We'd love to add photos of your events or small groups too. Feel free to send articles or photos to Cindi Dansizen or Kenzi Roberts (alpresby@avonlakepc.org) or Susan Reighard (reighard4@gmail.com).

Tell Us Your Story

Where did you grow up?

It has been said that it "takes a village" to raise a child. My village was Meadville, PA from 1947 to 1965. Dad was an accountant for Talon zippers. Mom was not employed outside our home, but between Brownies, Girl Scouts and organizing Sunday school, she had a lot going on. Add my older sister to the mix and that formed our nuclear family.

So, what did we do growing up there? Let's start with the fact that electronic devices were minimal. The black and white TV in the living room was mostly used after homework and chores were done. I did have a radio in my bedroom. My Mom had a whistle that she blew if we were out and about with neighborhood friends, and when she blew it, we knew to get home. In the summer, my friends and I would often pack a lunch and take off on our bicycles and not come home until dinner. That might sound risky in today's world, but the neighborhood Moms all kept track of us, and believe me, if any mischief was afoot, Mom knew about it before we got home.

In winter, when our street was covered with ice, we would put on ice skates and skate on the street. In summer, there were city parks, backyard badminton and card games.

As we turned into teenagers, there were new adventures such as walking the mile to downtown to see a movie or shop. School activities also blended into our lives. Marching band practice started in August so we would be ready for Fall football games. Volunteering as a Candy Striper became my Saturday morning activity. I had decided that I wanted to be a nurse and the staff that knew this were so willing to teach me about assessments.

Even now, I am grateful for all the adults in my "village."

Nancy

The goal of these stories is to get to know those in our church family better. Suggestions for topics are welcome. Next month's topic for MY STORY is: Tell about a Random Act of Kindness that you have received and how you were affected by it. Please submit to Cindi & Kensi in the church office by May 15th.

Session Highlights

The Session met on April 18 – Highlights of their meeting were:

- * The Deacons' movie nights were well enjoyed by the attendees, and the Deacons are planning an outdoor movie night on the front lawn of the church during the summer.
- * The Deacons assist with the Mission Committee's food projects including helping at the Second Harvest Food Bank and packing brown bag lunches. They will deliver hot meals to members who want them, starting in May.
- * The church budget is in a good position now, primarily because we have unfilled staff positions.
- * Human Resources announced hiring Kenzi Roberts for office administrator and Jessica Hughett for janitor, and they are currently interviewing for the interim pastor.
- * The creation of a new part-time position for a media specialist is being investigated.
- * The Easter egg hunt was a big success with many of our families in attendance as well as invited guest families, the youth involved in egg filling and hiding, and the children going home with filled baskets.
- * Sunday school attendance is increasing, with a need for an intermediate class becoming apparent.
- * A landscaping plan is in the early stages of development, with an emphasis on low maintenance foliage.
- * The Spring Work Day will be June 5, Pentecost Sunday, with food served by the Deacons, and members are invited to cut and remove firewood from the many downed trees.
- * A volunteer to make curtains for the renovated restrooms is needed.
- * Over $3,000 was collected for the renovated restrooms during the grand opening celebration.
- * 199 books were donated in the book drive and given to the Cleveland Kid's Book Bank.
- * Sheet cakes are needed for the upcoming dinner we're providing to Haven House.
- * The church brochures will be updated and handed out in the Avon Lake Memorial Day Parade.
- * A storage location for digital photographs of church activities will be created and members are asked to send in their photos for the archive.
- * A new member class will be held soon.
- * Holy Week was wonderful, and a huge endeavor by many of our members.
- * The risers and choir chairs will be tested in different arrangements to determine how they best can be used.
- * Communion will soon be served with regular bread and juice, with the option for gluten-free packaged elements for those who want them.
- * Sundays in spring we will be honoring various groups and people who are serving in our church.
- * A nominee for the empty elder position has been found, and a special congregational meeting will be called for May 8 after worship for the election.

* When services run over an hour, only the videos replayed on cable TV are affected, as the beginning and end may be cut off. The recordings on Facebook and YouTube are unaffected.

* Recordings of ALPC's bell and chancel choirs were played at the March Presbytery meeting in honor of Pastor Charlie.

Mission Matters

"The people who give you their food give you their heart." ~ Cesar Chavez

Thank you for your support for OGHS in April. We hope that our detailed explanation of this Presbyterian Special offering helped you understand the scope of the work being done. The next special offering is Pentecost, June 5th.

We packed another brown bag lunch on April 10th. We were happy to have help and donations from church members, Deacons, circle members and "knitters." Bill Till prepared a spring meal to be delivered April 24th. Special thanks to Mike Ciarrone and the Hamilton's for delivering the food to Haven Center. Our next brown bag lunch will be packed by the ALPC Deacons on May 8th.

Top 5 Food Drive beginning May 1st until May 15th. Why Top 5? Kathy Navarro and Kathy Hamilton have discovered that "The top 5 items requested in local pantries are condiments, syrup, canned: corn, beans, peas, spinach, small cans of Chef Boy-R-Dee type pasta (Beefaroni, SpaghettiOs, ravioli etc.) any dry pasta, except elbow macaroni. These are the staples of many kitchens but not often available in local pantries. There will be samples at church.

Mark your calendar: LCM Wine and Cheese fundraiser, May 14th. Food, wine, entertainment and raffle prizes will be part of this fun evening. The cost is just $10. It is being held at 1st Lutheran Church in Lorain. Kathy Hamilton and Kathy Navarro have tickets.

PCUSA Special Offering for Pentecost is June 5th. We decided to share the local designation with Camp Imagine (Avon Lake).

Kathy Leopold is excited to announce that a trip to Guatemala is being planned this October! She will be able to see some of the students we have helped support for years! Please ask Kathy or Michele Cold about the families of Guatemala and the nonprofit Guatemalan Family Development that helps support their efforts on behalf of these students. Guatemalan Mission

Please include Lee Lohr and her family members living in the Ukraine in your prayers.

Join us at our Monthly meetings. We usually meet the first Wednesday of the month. Beth Janis bjanis1383@gmail.com

Christian Education

On Palm Sunday, after the worship service, we had a spectacular Easter Egg hunt. We were so happy to have so many children searching for eggs.

Many of our Cornerstone children helped to make it a successful event. A good job goes out to our youth who filled the eggs. They put on bunny ears and hid the eggs and helped the children find them. Great job to all who helped. There were many happy smiles.

Christian Education is committed to making this an annual event.

Friendly reminder we are having Sunday school every Sunday at 10. Join us.

Penny Helbig, Christian Education Committee Elder

Worship & Spiritual Life

"...the Lord is risen indeed" Luke 24:34

As this is being written, the April sun is shining brilliantly outside, reminiscent of Jesus rising up from death to be the radiant Light of the world forevermore.

Through this Lenten season, Pastor Rick guided us to travel back to Jerusalem with Jesus. We saw how our King and Savior did not claim privilege and honor but was a servant to all, putting everyone before himself.

Heralded as the most important week in the Church, the days from Palm Sunday to Easter, Holy Week was ushered in with flute and piano playing "The Holy City" with its descriptive lyrics telling the story of Jesus' journey. We celebrated Jesus' triumphant arrival into Jerusalem waving palm branches as we sang hymns.

On Maundy Thursday, the evening of the last-supper, Communion was served. The Taize service began with candlelight, reflecting Jesus' prayerful time in the garden and the somberness of his arrest that night.

Our Good Friday Tenebrae service was a time of reflection on our Lord's loving sacrifice upon the cross for us with music from our Chancel and Bell Choirs joined by the True North Chorale & Chamber Orchestra. The lights gradually grew dim and candles went out until the sanctuary dramatically resembled the darkness that descended around Jesus' death.

On Easter, a Sunrise Service began at 6:30am over Lake Erie on North Point Road. Our traditional Easter service was adorned with flowers in our sanctuary. To add to our joy on this day, we each placed blossoms on the special cross that was displayed on the front lawn after worship to symbolize Jesus' rise from death.

The Sunday after Easter, the Elders of Jazz brought their spiritually uplifting Dixieland jazz style of worship music here. This has been our tradition for many, many years. Along with this special treat, Jan Hart Traxler delivered the last sermon of her late husband, our beloved Rev. Al Hart, making this a very special day of worship. Rev. Hart played trombone with the Elders and was one of its founders.

We'll welcome back the Rev. Kurt Walker to preach on May 1 and 15 when Pastor Rick has to be away. We enjoyed him here in December and look forward to hearing from him again.

Please note that we are developing a hybrid method of Communion, using both familiar elements of the past, as well as providing some sealed elements for those that prefer that method. We are targeting late spring/early summer for this change.

A new worship series will begin after Pentecost and we ask for your patience as we work through the worship process in this time of transition.

Rejoice! God has richly blessed us. Let us rejoice in our church! Let us gather together to praise and serve him. Let us welcome all, include everyone, learn through forgiveness, practice compassion and deepen our faith through obedience to our loving and magnificent God. Amen!

Respectfully submitted by Cris Till for the Worship and Spiritual Life Committee: Dave Brunner, Music Director Rick Fortney, Margre Lind Mills, Beth Shoemaker, Jeff Spenser, Marcy Uhl, Sarah Waggoner, JoAnn Wainscott and Pastor Rick Stein.

Music & Arts Ministries

A HUGE thank you to all those involved with Music and Arts throughout Lent and Holy Week. One thing positive from what we experienced from this pandemic is the further development of our audio/visual ministries and in having all of our worship services available on YouTube.

If you missed Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, or Easter ... all you need to do is google it!

I would encourage you to take a time out of your busy day and google a service, use it as a time of reflection, refreshment, and nourishment as you worship.

Financial Report

At the end of March, our receipts were about $13,300 above budget and our expenses were still below budget. However, the receipts include several full year pledges paid so this will level off as the year progresses. Please remember to keep your pledge current.

If you have not paid your Per capita yet it's not too late! The amount this year is $34.91 per confirmed member. Please remember that this amount is over and above your pledged giving.

It also isn't too late if you have not turned in your pledge. Pledges can be placed in the offering plate or sent to the church. Having pledges helps us know if our estimated giving is close to correct or if we need to make adjustments.

Property Committee

Property Committee has a lot going on lately.

On March 27, we celebrated the completion of the Bathroom Renovation project. Congratulations to the following winners of the "Golden Plunger" awards for correctly answering "Powder Room" trivia questions: Dave Brunner, Mike Dean, Barbara Graves.

We are still in need of curtains in our new bathrooms. Please let Terry Vine know if you feel inclined to put those finishing touches on 2 of the 3 restrooms.

Jessica Hughett is back at ALPC as our custodian. Welcome Back Jessica!

Spring Workday is scheduled for June 5 with a backup date of June 12. The Deacons will be serving food outdoors.

There is firewood available! The north and east sections of the church property have dead wood that needs cleaned out. Some people have shown an interest in using that as firewood, If you are interested, please see anyone on Property Committee to arrange for that.

Committee members: Jim Janis, Gary Uhl, Craig Shoemaker, Larry Madsen, John Mills, Terry Vine

On behalf of the Property Committee, Terry Vine
